KWONESHEE THE WINNER

English-Bred Jumper First in the Ticket of Leave Steeplechase.

Close Finishes Feature Laurel Racing—Jockey Fator Rides Three Winners.

LAUREL, Md., October 29.—The "Ticket of Leave" Steeplechase of $3,000 added, for three-year-olds, over the two-mile course, was featured by the Laurel management this afternoon, and it brought out a field of promising jumpers. William Garth, mounted on the old jumper Ticket of Leave, led the field in the parade to the post. The race furnished a good contest, resulting in a driving finish between Kwoneshee and Roi Craig, in which the former won by a neck. Gargoyle was the only other horse to finish, Sea Sun being pulled up at the fourteenth jump, while Minata and Twiford fell.

The track, although it dried out considerably, was still a bit lumpy and heavy in spots. While only horses of the cheaper grade made up the fields in the other races, they were well matched and furnished some spirited racing. Tattle and Col. Murphy fought out a close finish in the third race, the result being in doubt until the final strides, when the former prevailed and secured the decision. Another close finish was that between Legacy and War Plume, the latter tiring in the final eighth after leading throughout, permitting Legacy to draw clear right at the end.

The Decision was the outstanding choice in the fourth race, but quit after going a mile and finished in the ruck, the winner turning up in Elected II., the French-bred filly showing the way throughout.

Samuel Ross' colors were carried to victory in the mile dash for two-year-olds that opened the day's sport by the Vulcain filly Toucanet, which easily held the favorite, Master Bill, safe from start to finish.

Jockey Fator rode three of the afternoon's winners, Toucanet in the opener, Legacy in the fifth and Ideal in the sixth.

Widow Bedotte was confidently supported in the closing dash and won, but gave her backers several anxious moments near the finish when Tie Pin just failed to overtake her in a terrific closing drive.

A number of new arrivals from New York were present, among them Jack Odom, J. J. Fitzgerald, Jack Scully and Jack Adler.

The J. K. L. Ross racer Foreground, which was cut down at the post by Papp the last time he started, has been retired for the year. Motor Cop has been blistered and also put by until next spring.

The following claims were lodged during the afternoon: Master Bill by his owner for $3,205 and The Decision by Mrs. F. A. Clark for $2,850.

The surplus from the selling and claiming races on Tuesday was only $900, and this sum will be added to the purses on Thursday, making each $1,650.

Nine carloads of thoroughbreds left Laurel yesterday afternoon for Pimlico, among them the racers of Commander J. K. L. Ross.

Lucullite, S. C. Hildreth's great racer that was kicked at the post by Fairy Wand on Saturday, was not seriously injured. Fairy Wand landed on Lucullite's flank and cut the flesh, but it was a glancing blow and Lucullite was all right when he was shipped to Pimlico.

HAVANA'S FINE WINTER MEETING

Entries to Oriental Park's Thirteen Stake Races Close Next Monday.

BALTIMORE, Md., October 29.—With the fall meetings of the different racing associations in the country rapidly drawing to a close horsemen and racegoers are turning their attention to the two winter racing points—Havana and New Orleans. Havana, the newer of the two, has come to the front with rapid strides since the inaugural meeting held at Oriental Park six winters ago. Conceded to be one of the finest racing grounds in the world, it has the added attraction of the sport being held under ideal conditions regaring climate during the winter months.

The remarkable increase of interest in the sport year by year and the lavish outlay in adding to the beauty and comfort of the grounds mark Oriental Park as one of the most complete and satisfactory winter plants for racing. The meeting, which is scheduled to begin Thanksgiving day, Thursday, November 27, promises well. Locally it has taken rapid strides since its inaugural, and every season finds added followers from the States.

This year the Cuba-American Jockey and Auto Club has provided an attractive list of stakes to be run at the coming meeting. There are thirteen in all, which range in added money value from $1,200 to $10,000. Nominations to these stakes close next Monday, November 3. Two new stakes have been announced for this meeting, the Cuban Derby and the Grand National Handicap. They are designed upon ambitious lines, as leaders in the future of racing in the Republic of Cuba. The plan is to make them in succeeding years the greatest events in value and quality known to winter racing. Five of the remaining stake fixtures have been given liberal increases in added money. No purse in the overnight races will be less than $600, as against $500 last winter. This alone will add over $60,000 in overnight purse values to the aggregate of the last meeting. The condition book daily will offer purses of $700, $800 and $1,000 for handicaps and races for the higher class material.

James F. Milton is looking after the interests of the club at the Maryland courses, while at the Kentucky tracks Edward Jasper and W. H. Shelley will furnish the horsemen and public with any information they may desire.

The club recently passed into the hands of Charles F. Stoneham and John J. McGraw, the moving spirits in the New York "Giants," but the meeting next winter will be held under the same management as in previous years. H. D. Brown, the president and general manager, has retained the same staff as last year.

TOM WELCH GOES ABROAD SATURDAY

Tom Welch, trainer for Joseph E. Widener, leaves for France Saturday to inspect the Philadelphia sportsman's French breeding and training establishment near Le Nians. From there Welch goes as an open minded purchaser to the English December sales and will be back in New York by Christmas time.

MINTO II., OF ENGLISH LINEAGE, A FAIR RACER

(By EXILE)

Minto II. has been showing good form on the Kentucky courses this autumn. Of course, he beat Ormesdale and Rifle over a mile, burdened with 126 pounds; he experienced none the best of the luck when John O. took his measure in the running of the Pershing Handicap. Before this, July 2, at Aqueduct, Minto II. beat the three-year-old Thunderclap, both carrying level weight, 105 pounds, Be Frank 119 pounds, also taking part in this race. This performance on the part of Minto II. will bear close inspection, for I cannot think those in charge of Thunderclap had as yet come to realize what sort of a colt they were entertaining, one which subsequent events prove to be not so far behind Sir Barton, and any horse, no matter the weights, found capable of beating Thunderclap is worthy of consideration. Minto II.'s sire, Sundridge, is best known as a sprinter, and with the possible exception of Sunstar, as the sire of sprinters, Bay Ronald, however, sire of Minto II.'s dam, Miss Ronald, won the City and Suburban, Lowther and Limekiln Stakes, and sired such celebrities as Macdonald, Dark Ronald and Bayardo. Sesara, dam of Miss Ronald, won the French One Thousand and is a daughter of the Derby and St. Leger winner, Donovan, and the next dam, Seraphine, is a French-bred daughter of the Grand Prix winner, Bruce, son of the Herod horse, See Saw, and this a French branch, and a most productive one, too, of the No. 5 family. Of course, Minto II.'s stamina has largely to be taken on trust. There is room for hope, however, in that much staying blood is brought into the pedigree by way of Hampton, Galliard, Donovan, Bruce and Trocadero. This is his pedigree:

KING PLAUDIT A DISAPPOINTMENT

Much was expected from King Plaudit in the racing of this year. Indeed, there were not a few admirers of the colt who thought the highest honors of the year destined to rest on his handsome three-year-old head. Such hopes ended in disappointment. King Plaudit has no place among the elect of his age. He won races and he showed on more than one occasion that he can run fast, but he possessed no chance against such as Sir Barton, Purchase or Eternal. After the fashion of horseflesh he may do better in 1920.

Domino and King Plaudit are both sons of Himyar. The descendants of the former are more noted for their speed than for their endurance, nor do they age well. The Plaudits, however, most of them, race well over long distances and improve as they grow older.

Wild Thistle, King Plaudit's dam, is by Kinght of the Thistle, which was next thing to first class as a race horse, running second as a two-year-old to St. Frusquin for the Dewhurst Plate; won as a four-year-old the March Stakes, Royal Hunt Cup, beating Victor Wild; ran second to Velasquez for the Princess of Wales Stakes, $50,000, at Newmarket; won as a six-year-old the Kempton Park Great Jubilee Handicap and Craven Stakes at Epsom. Knight of the Thistle got, among others, the Kentucky Derby winner, Worth, a good, if ill-starred colt, and the Knight's sire, Rosebery, won both Cesarewitch and Cambridgeshire, so there should be no lack of staying powers here. Reform and Bonnie Scotland are well-bred horses, carrying much staying blood in their veins. Bonnie Scotland was one of the most influential horses ever imported and his line is much of a going concern today and members of his line not at all deficient in stamina. The family, too, of which King Plaudit is a member, Galopade, has been productive of many a good distance runner, such as Omar Khayyam's conqueror, Westy Hogan. This is the way he is bred:

BRIGAND'S CAMBRIDGESHIRE HANDICAP

LONDON, England, October 29.—With eighteen horses starting the Cambridgeshire Handicap at one and an eighth miles was run at Newmarket Heath today and was won by G. Barday's five-year-old bay horse Brigand, by Lemberg—Plyte, carrying 112 pounds. Lord De Abernon's five-year-old chestnut mare Diaden, by Orby—Donnetta, 124 pounds, was second, and A. R. Cox' four-year-old bay filly My Dear, by Beppo—Silesia, 128 pounds, was third.

PAYS $75,000 FOR SEVEN YEARLINGS

LAUREL, Md., October 29.—James Fitzsimmons, trainer for the Quincy Stable, which sold seven yearlings on Tuesday to C. F. Evans for $75,000, still has seventeen in his charge at Sheepshead Bay. Among them is a brother to Trojan, winner of the Futurity. The brother to Man o' War is a fine looking colt, Fitzsimmons said.

C. F. Evans, the purchaser of the Quincy Stable yearlings, is a newcomer to the sport.

MERMAN'S LONG RANGE PURCHASE

The story of the purchase of the famous Merman by Mrs. Langtry is interesting and is told in William Allison's recent book, "My Kingdom for a Horse." Mr. Allison had just received a cable from Australia, which read: "Merman won Williamstown Cup. Best horse in Australia to win long distance handicap in England. Legs like steel, $8,000," when Mrs. Langtry came in the office, wanted to buy a winner, and the cable was shown to her. She took the risk and how Merman won the Cesarewitch the same year is a matter of history.

NO PURSE AT PIMLICO LESS THAN $1,500

LAUREL, Md., October 29.—Secretary William P. Riggs of the Maryland Jockey Club announced that during the Pimlico meeting no purse in the overnight races would be less than $1,500. This means an increase of $500 over the previously announced minimum amount of any race and that about $150,000 will be distributed during the eleven days of racing.

PLEASANT AT LOUISVILLE

Balmy Weather and a Greatly Improved Track Arrivals.

Manager Waite Decides to Race and Takes the Mile and a Half Dash.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., October 29.—Ideal weather and good track conditions were features at Churchill Downs this afternoon, and were responsible for bringing out the full racing strength here. The sport was the best of the meeting, the improving track, the course almost bordering on fast, contributing extensively toward the good sport and giving some of the better grade of racers full opportunity to show to their best. Many of the finishes were close and stubbornly fought. Favorites were again to the fore, three of the afternoon's victors being at odds-on.

Jockey C. Robinson had the distinction of piloting the trio, and they won in decisive style. It was the first time during the meeting that the rider, now leading all others in this country, showed to advantage in his work. He inaugurated his success in the opening race with M. Goldblatt's Fifi II., which barely managed to last long enough to win by a nose, and with better judgment on the part of Thurber, who was astride Kiku, that filly would have been the victress. Thurber made the blunder of delaying his drive after coming wide into the stretch.

George J. Long's Orlova, which has been contending in stakes and purses with the best all year, was finally in with an ordinary band of maidens, and it was no effort at all for her to lead them from the start and win as her rider pleased.

Robinson's final winning mount was Prince Pal, which his connections hold highly and aim at winning next year's Kentucky Derby with. He was opposed by some good youngsters at a mile, and in the early running gave his supporters some concern, because of his sluggishness, but once straightened fully for the stretch drive he came with giant strides and disposed of the leader, The Swimmer, in the final drive.

T. C. McDowell's colors were carried to victory for the first time here this fall when his Manager Waite, racing in his best form, accounted for the feature race, a handicap at a mile and a half. Promising to be an easy winner after going a mile, Manager Waite finally began tiring, and it required jockey J. Howard's best horsemanship to get him home a scant length in advance of Stockwell, with Polka Dot pressing the pair stubbornly.

BLUSHING BEAUTY WINS IMPRESSIVELY.

E. R. Bradley's Blushing Beauty, with a switch in riders from Boyle to Donahue, made a runaway of the third race, for which Enmity was the choice. The latter ran a game race and succeeded in the final strides in overhauling Herald. The Donahue switch was attempted with Bulldoze in the feature race, but worked to disadvantage, for Bulldoze tried to run out on the turns.

B. B. Johnson provided the outstanding upset of the afternoon. He was not regarded with favor over the good track, but he moved into a good lead at once and succeeded in outstaying the odds-on favorite Bullion.

Mountain Rose II., which in a previous recent start showed speed when at a short price, displayed improvement in the final race, which he won as his rider elected from Iwiniwin and Redstart. Darkness was settling fast while this dash was on, and it was with difficulty that the colors could be distinguished.

J. O. Whitlow added Mistress Polly to his string that will be campaigned in New Orleans next winter. He acquired her on private terms from H. Neusteter.

Jockey M. Garner will not be seen in the saddle again at this meeting, having been suspended by the stewards yesterday for rough riding in the last race.

Furbelow and Grand Slam, formerly the property of H. P. Whitney, have been sold privately to E. Bates.

Horsemen are becoming much concerned over the lack of express cars to transport their horses to winter racing points. There may be better prospects early next week for securing the necessary transportation.

H. D. Brown, general manager of the Havana track, is expected here tomorrow to assist in the shipment of the big band of horses that are booked for the Cuban track.

Blaise came out of his race yesterday badly cut about the legs and was excused from filling his engagement this afternoon.

B. J. Brannon stated today that he would not campaign his horses next winter and will move them into winter quarters at Churchill Downs.

W. J. Young sold Riddle after his start in the second race to H. Masterson.

SPEEDY HANNIBAL TO RACE AT PIMLICO

R. T. Wilson's Good Three-Year-Old to Try for Rich Prizes Offered by Maryland Jockey Club.

BALTIMORE, Md., October 29.—The horses Richard T. Wilson will race at Pimlico through the eleven-day meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club are the three-year-olds Hannibal, Thunderstorm and Thistledon; the two-year-old Round Robin, and the four-year-old Wyoming.

Mr. Wilson has a high-class three-year-old in Hannibal, a home-bred son of Olambala and Mexoana, and the winner at Saratoga of the Travers Stakes, a race in which he defeated War Pennant and Thunderclap in fast time—2:02⅘—for a mile and a quarter. Hannibal's training for the $25,000 Preakness, Pimlico's great spring race for three-year-olds, was interrupted by an attack of influenza, and the Olambala colt was a couple of months recovering his strength and speed. But he is coming to Maryland in splendid condition and Healey expects to have him ready to fill his engagements in the $5,000 Pimlico Autumn Handicap, a race of a mile and a quarter, for three-year-olds exclusively; the $10,000 Bowie Cup, a race of a mile and a half, for three-year-olds and over, and the Pimlico Cup, a $5,000 race at two miles and a quarter, for three-year-olds and over. Thunderstorm, a brother of Campfire, the juvenile champion of 1916, is in these races with Hannibal, but he will hardly start. Thunderstorm is not a colt of the high class of Hannibal. Thunderstorm is, however, a useful sort of three-year-old, and there will be plenty of employment for him.

SOME AUSTRALIAN RACING LESSONS

Divisional Handicaps in Vogue in That Country Have Much Merit.

(BY EXILE.)

Not so many years ago I was fortunate enough to see a good deal of racing in Australia, where the sport is more popular even than here in this country. Nowhere does one come across more sportsmen of the best type than in the land of the southern cross, that brilliant constellation which now seems so far away. Of course there are good and bad points in racing in all countries. In Australia selling races are taboo; just why it is rather hard to understand. In place of selling races Australia has a system of divisional handicaps; that is to say, first, second and third division handicaps. Here is a suggestion, one that may be looked upon with favor by the American powers that be. Why not division handicaps as written of by handicapper Vosburgh some time since for this country? There is a certain sameness pertaining to the daily racing bill of fare now in vogue that is rather apt to pall. In bygone days an occasional owners' handicap found a place on the program, as did weight-for-age races and races for all ages. These for some reason not altogether understood have been practically permitted to die out and the racing card is, or I should say was, up until most recently made up of a couple of two-year-old scrambles, two sprint races and two races run over the one mile and divisional distances. Happily, however, the executives are now making some sort of endeavor to rehabilitate long distance racing and would make vastly more headway if larger amounts of money were added to the longer distance events, for the reason that horses cannot continue long distance racing indefinitely. Now here is the advantage of the division handicap: Say two classes, each to be split into three divisions—class A for stayers, one and one-quarter miles to one and one-half miles; class B, three-quarters to one mile—each class to be open to all without handicapping fee.

HORSES GRADE UP AND DOWN NATURALLY.

Under the average ruling of the Kentucky State Racing Commission a larger amount of money could be added to those racing in class A than is given for those which compete in class B. Nothing more than a graded scale of moneys added according to merit. Owners and trainers would, of course, enter their horses for that class to which their speed and endurance entitled them. It would be the duty of the handicapper to determine to the best of his ability to which of the three divisions each horse belonged, and after the weights were fixed in each class the entries divided into three divisions, weights moving up automatically in each division, so that the top weight in all should not carry less than weight-for-age. Winners of any division to be penalized on their next appearance in public, two wins insuring a promotion. Correspondingly those which by their racing prove too high an estimate had been formed of their merits would drop down in the handicap.

To say that long distance racing, after Latonia Cup and Championship days, is not popular with the race going public is not true. The public desires long distance racing. It is presumably the horsemen who fight shy of it, but even they are not altogether to blame, for they well know that horses cannot be kept on edge for long distance racing for any great length of time, hence it should be the province of the governing bodies to insist on an increase of money added to races run over such a distance of ground and thereby make a big stride forward in the development of one of this country's best assets—the thoroughbred horse. The inauguration of a system of division handicaps might be a big assistance in determining the relative merits of horses really fit for use in after years as sires.

TWO-YEAR-OLD RACING IN AUSTRALIA.

Another thing for which Australia is to be commended is the style and character of her two-year-old racing. In Australia excessive two-year-old racing is infrequent, nay, impossible, and is only carried on as a means of education. An occasional stake race, such as the Maribyrnong Plate at Flemington, is given and this the race I saw the flying Traquette win in the style of Man o' War, but no such thing as two races for juveniles each day is thought of. In consequence during my stay down under I saw more fourteen, fifteen and sixteen-year-old horses running and winning good races than I thought could be found in any one country. Never yet have I understood this craze for two-year-old racing. Needless to say, this sort of thing tends to commercialize the sport, and once this is done the end must surely come. The best of this year's three-year-olds, such as Sir Barton, Mad Hatter and Purchase, were not raced to excess in their two-year-old days; neither, I am happy to say, was this season's champion, Man o' War. Think a bit. Which of them would in open market command the highest price for use as a sire, the judiciously educated and raced youngster which the following season developed into a great three-year-old, or the overtaxed youngster which exhausted his energies early in his career in being sent out for everything in sight during his first season on the turf?

Doubtless the fault lies in the system, and this in part was the cause of the feeble opposition to Mad Hatter in the running of the Latonia Championship.

DESERT GOLD FOR NEW ZEALAND

Ex-Australasian Champion Stays at Home—Antipodean Turf News and Notes.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Australia, September 2.—That glorious mare and ex-champion, Desert Gold, is said to be looking as well as any previous time, and it is expected she will add to her winning record this season. A little while back it was reported that she might visit Australia again, but with Sasanof, Gloaming and other good horses absent from New Zealand Mr. Lowry may deem it advisable to keep her over there for the weight-for-age races. It would certainly be good policy, as the great mare cannot well be expected to show her best form of the past, and nothing would be gained by bringing her over here to probable defeat.

There is a growing feeling everywhere in New Zealand that the regulations prohibiting the publication of dividends, so far from serving any useful purpose, are encouraging fraud and deception, and actually playing into the hands of the less desirable class of bookmakers. The need for a thorough revision of the law and for its vigorous and impartial administration is shown every day in a score of ways.

Of the eighty-six jockeys recently licensed by the Australian Jockey Club the riding weight of only two is given as less than 100 pounds—namely, W. Kitchener ninety-five pounds and C. Roberts ninety-six pounds. Nearest to these two are D. O'Connor, W. McCabe, L. A. Griffith, R. T. Harding, J. Quigley and H. Ryan, 100 pounds each. Four prominent jockeys listed at 112 pounds each are K. Bracken, A. Wood, W. H. McLachlan and M. Connell, while L. A. Walker and W. J. Lillyman can each make 108 pounds.

Betting licenses issued by the Australian Jockey Club for the current season total as follows: Paddock, 143; general, 138; flat, 120. This list may, of course, receive additions as the season progresses, but with 401 bookmakers, in addition to the totalizator in each inclosure, backers are well catered for at the Randwick course.

After racing for ten seasons Lord Grey is being retired by his owner, M. Counihan, who has presented him to a friend for use as a hack. Altogether Lord Grey ran in 125 races and won but fifteen. He was second in two Grand National hurdle races and third in another.

During his turf career the old fellow ran in races aggregating 189¼ miles, made up as follows: Flat races, seventy-eight miles; hurdle races, 101¼ miles, and steeplechases, ten miles. He ran at eight Grand National meetings. KANGAROO.

BY JINGO A DOUBLE CUP WINNER

By Jingo, by Aquascutum—Minnesota, by Valasquez, proved himself a first-class stayer in England this year. With the steadier of 126 pounds he won the Manchester Cup of $10,575 in a canter from eight others, running the mile and a half in 2:31⅖. At Ascot a few days later he followed this up with a win in the Gold Cup of $12,300, two and a half miles. He carried 130 pounds. By Jingo, which was bred by Stephen Donoghue, the jockey, and was bought by W. de Pledge for $10,000 a couple of years ago, also won the Manchester Cup last year. When By Jingo won the Manchester Cup he was protested against by Horatio Bottomley, owner of the second horse, Aynsley, on the score that although he was nominated by De Pledge, that was not the owner's real or assumed name. According to rumor, Mr. Bottomley had an idea the horse was owned by Donoghue, but failing to prove anything, the stewards forfeited his deposit of $25. About five months prior to his recent wins veterinary opinion was to the effect that owing to an injury to the sheath of his near fore tendon By Jingo would not stand further training. Aquascutum, sire of By Jingo, is by Childwick—Cullercoats, by Darby, and his fee was $250 when he sired By Jingo. This season it was $95, and only that he is twenty-two years old his son's deeds would probably cause a considerable advance next year.

FOUR SIRES NOW IN THEIR PRIME

Lines of Descent Resulting in the Excellent Horses Marathon, Sea King, Transvaal and Hessian.

Marathon, Sea King, Transvaal and Hessian constitute a group of sires influential in our breeding and now in the prime of horse life. Marathon is the senior of the four by one year, and just now is best represented in our racing by the extremely fast horse Jack Hare Jr. A few years back another son of his, Marion Goosby, was quite an effective race horse and stake winner. His breeding is of the best, and he is full of staying blood. Rightly mated he should some day send a great cup horse to the races. It will be observed that Bend Or is especially prominent in his pedigree, which in four generations also includes the other Epsom Derby winners Doncaster, Galopin, Shotover, Thormanby, Macaroni and Hermit. It reads as follows:

MARATHON (1904), bay horse, by
- Martagon
  - Bend Or.
    - Doncaster.... (Stockwell / Marigold)
    - Rouge Rose.. (Thormanby / Ellen Horne)
  - Tiger Lily...
    - Macaroni.... (Sweetmeat / Jocose)
    - Polly Agnes. (The Cure / Miss Agnes)
- Ondulee
  - St. Simon
    - Galopin..... (Vedette / Flying Duchess)
    - St. Angela... (King Tom / Adeline)
  - Ornis....
    - Bend Or..... (Doncaster / Rouge Rose)
    - Shotover.... (Hermit / Stray Shot)

Sea King is a product of the union of the two great English families of St. Simon and Isonomy. His sire, Persimmon, was a truly great race horse, winner of the Epsom Derby and Doncaster St. Leger and a highly successful sire when his racing days were over. Sea King represents a concentration of Eclipse blood. So far he has sired no truly great race horse, but his sons and daughters race usefully and some of better class should crop up presently. There is plenty of Herod and Matchem blood in this country to furnish him a suitable affinity, and his descent is as follows:

SEA KING (1905), chestnut horse, by
- Persimmon
  - St. Simon
    - Galopin..... (Vedette / Flying Duchess)
    - St. Angela... (King Tom / Adeline)
  - Perdita II.....
    - Hampton.... (Lord Clifden / Lady Langden)
    - Hermione.... (Y'ng Melbourne / La Belle Helene)
- Sea Air
  - Isonomy.
    - Sterling..... (Oxford / Whisper)
    - Isola Bella.. (Stockwell / Isoline)
  - Re-echo.
    - Reverbera-tion..... (Thunderbolt / The Golden Horn)
    - Mabille..... (Parmesan / Rigolboche)

Transvaal is a characteristic product of Castleton Stud breeding, American sire and English dam. He was not the equal of his half-brother Pennant as a race horse, but was better than the average and won good races for his breeder, the late James R. Keene. From the time his progeny entered racing Transvaal has been one of our proved successful sires. This year he is ably represented by a number of excellent campaigners, including such as King Gorin, Blackie Daw, Boniface and the fleet filly Violet Bonnie. These are good enough for anybody and he may do better still. His lineage is:

TRANSVAAL (1905), bay horse, by
- Commando
  - Domino.
    - Himyar..... (Alarm / Hira)
    - Mannie Gray. (Enquirer / Lizzie G.)
  - Emma C..
    - Darebin..... (The Peer / Lurline)
    - Guenn..... (Flood / Glendew)
- Royal Rose
  - Royal Hampton....
    - Hampton.... (Lord Clifden / Lady Langden)
    - Princess..... (King Tom / Mrs. Lincoln)
  - Belle Rose...
    - Beaudesert.. (Sterling / Sea Gull)
    - Monte-Rosa. (Craig Miller / Hedge Rose)

Hessian was one of the best of the many real race horses the Springfield sire, Watercress, sent into American racing from the famous Rancho del Paso Stud. He is strictly foreign bred, mixed English and Australian. His opportunities have been limited since entering stud life, but Grayssian and Azurita have given him excellent advertising in this year's racing and his growing popularity seems assured, especially when the high class of his son Boots a few years back is recalled. His pedigree is along somewhat unusual lines and there is probably no horse living closer up to the immortal brood mare, Queen Mary, than is this same Hessian. Here is his pedigree:

HESSIAN (1906), bay horse, by
- Watercress
  - Spring-field...
    - St. Albans... (St. Albans / Viridis)
    - Viridis..... (Marsyas / M. of Palmyra)
  - Wharf-dale...
    - Hermit..... (Newminster / Seclusion)
    - Bonnie Doon. (Rapid Rhone / Queen Mary)
- Colonial
  - Trenton..
    - Musket..... (Toxophilite / D.ofW.Aus'lian)
    - Frailty..... (Goldsbrough / Flora McIvor)
  - Thank-ful Blosson
    - Paradox..... (Sterling / Casuistry)
    - The Apple... (Hermit / Black Star)

ENGLAND'S TWO LEADING JOCKEYS

Bernard Carslake, Australian born, is considered the most finished horseman in England, and despite that his 120 pounds of avoirdupois does not allow of participation in many races, he has the best average among the leading jockeys, Stephen Donoghue, Irishman, with the handy weight of about 105 pounds, easily heads the list of winning jockeys. Being of well-matured experience, Donoghue is much sought after by owners, and has a choice of mounts. The young man is wealthy. The two Smyths and Whalley are also in the first flight of riders, while Fred Templeman, who won the Derby on Grand Parade, and has been in India for some time, is at the head of the second flight. Many bettors in England follow certain riders' mounts, and without suggesting that there is a jockeys' ring there, it is not a bad thing to be in the confidence of the leading riders.

Donoghue owns and breeds horses as well as rides them, and among his equine possessions is the Cup horse of the season, By Jingo, which he bred.

LUCULLITE SUFFERS FROM A KICK

Lucullite, which was badly kicked by Fairy Wand in the race won by The Porter last Saturday at Laurel, was lame today. He showed that the kick had been more serious than Hildreth supposed when the horse returned to the scales after the race.

"I don't know when Lucullite will be able to race again," said Hildreth. "I will not be able to tell for another forty-eight hours, when the swelling will have subsided." Yesterday Hildreth decided that the injury was not serious.

Fairy Wand is a regular offender in the kicking line. She seldom behaves well at the barrier and has severely kicked a dozen good horses this year. The only escape for her company in any race for which she goes to the post is an early start.

THE REAL NAME OF L'INFIRMIER

A group of colored stable hands stood at the paddock gate at Empire City track last Friday and eagerly waited for the start of the third race. The boys had wagered all they had on a horse named L'Infirmier, at 20 to 1.

The horse was ridden by jockey Mountain, who got him away flying and made the running up the backstretch, also around the far turn. "Oh, you Infirmary!" shouted the Negroes, snapping their fingers. "Come on, Massa Mountain! Ride him, boy! We gets all the dough!"

But when L'Infirmier died away to nothing in the homestretch the shouting ended, and as one of the dusky rooters walked away sadly, he murmured: "Dat hoss is well named!"

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

J. O., Chicago, Ill. E. T. Colton owned Pan Zareta when she died. He bought her from J. F. Newman of Sweetwater, Texas, who bred and raced her during most of her career.

E. J. R., Oak Park, Ill. Winter racing will begin on Thanksgiving day at Jefferson Park, New Orleans, La., and at Oriental Park, Havana, Cuba.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

At the Parisian course of Longchamps Sunday, September 2, numbered saddle cloths were used for the first time in French racing.

The excuse given for Purchase's defeat of Sir Barton in the Dwyer Stakes at Aqueduct July 10 last is that Commander Ross' great colt lost a plate in the race on the sloppy track—a minor mishap if the plate was lost and not twisted and carried.

The Australian sire list at the end of the 1918-1919 racing season, July 1, was headed by The Welkin, the get of which won $156,855. Then come Linacre, $109,440; Kenilworth, $87,355; Alwyne, $79,545; Comedy King, $68,685; Syce, $57,030, and Eudorus, $54,165.

King Alfonso of Spain has at last got a good steeplechase horse in the English-bred chestnut horse Roi de la Lande, by Prince William—Dendera, which is six years old and won four jumping races in twelve days on Spanish courses. Roi de la Lande is to go to France and have his mettle tested against the French 'chasers.

GREAT JUMPERS ARE GETTING READY

Grand National Winners to Meet at Liverpool—Lord Glanely's Notable Pair—English Turf News.

LONDON, England, October 10.—For the obstacle racing season, which soon begins, three Grand National winners, Lutteur III., Poethlyn and Ally Sloper, are being carefully made ready at Lewes by trainer Escott. Poethlyn, this year's National winner, is now fifteen years old. He meets Lutteur III., Pollen, second in this year's National, and a great lot at Liverpool in November and in the Becher and Valentine steeplechases, both valuable. Both the Becher and Valentine Steeplechases are weight-for-age events, but with widely different conditions, inasmuch as there are neither penalties nor allowances, excepting one of four pounds for mares, associated with the Becher Steeplechase, whereas the conditions of the Valentine are so ingeniously framed that when the penalties and allowances are calculated the weights will partake of the character of a handicap.

Lord Glanely's $57,500 yearling colt by Swynford—Blue Tit, and Sceptre, which, before the former's sale, was the record priced yearling of England at $50,000, are now in the same stable. Lord Glanely lately bought Sceptre for a brood mare. She has so far not been a success and is twenty years old.

Sir Abe Bailey, the South African millionaire, oddly enough has two two-year-olds named Orpheus, both eligible for Derbys in 1920. The English Orpheus, by Orby—Electra, is estimated as the second best youngster of the season to Tetratema. He is eligible for the next Epsom Derby. His South African namesake is the best of his year in his own land and eligible to the South African Derby. Should an Orpheus win both races it would be a novel record.

In South Africa ten per cent are taken from the mutuels by the clubs and two per cent goes for state purposes of various kinds. Bookmakers also pay five per cent of their winning bets to the racing organizations. One of the results is low entrance fees to races. It costs some $7.50 to $10 to enter in events valued at $2,500. The place money in South Africa is higher than in this country and horses are required to be ridden out thoroughly in consequence.

IRISH ELEGANCE TO THE STUD.

Irish Elegance, the sensational horse of the English season, goes to the Foxhill Stud at the close of the year at a fee of $1,000. Irish Elegance is but four years old and by Sir Archibald—Sweet Clorane. His dam is not in the General Stud Book and there will be a bar sinister against his produce in many European countries, Spain barring it absolutely. But Irish Elegance is owned by an extremely rich man, Mr. James White, and despite the bar is to be given a full chance as a sire. He is not only one of the fastest and biggest horses of his time, and both a sprinter and a stayer, but is said to be the handsomest horse in England.

George Cunningham, an Englishman, but one of the leading trainers of France, died at Chantilly, France, October 5, aged 59. He had lived his life with horses, going to France at ten years of age. During his time Cunningham trained for Count de Lagrange, winning the Grand Prix of 1877 with St. Christophe for him; Michael Ephrussi, M. Abadie, Madame de Cheremeteff, Achille Fould and E. Eknayan. For M. Ephrussi Cunningham trained two Prix du Jockey Club (French Derby) winners, St. James and Gospodar; for Madame de Cheremeteff, Nuage, which won the Grand Prix of 1910, and for M. Fould, Houli, which scored in the Grand Prix of 1912. Cunningham's remains were buried in the English cemetery at Chantilly.

The French Derby (Prix du Jockey Club) for 1921 has closed with 209 entries, and the Prix de Diane (French Oaks) with 171.

Striking instances of how English owners race for their own money were shown September 24 and 25 at Gatwick. The first day's six races, for $7,000, cost the association $81 and the second day's six races, for $6,500, gave the association a profit in entrance fees alone of $790. Yet horse prices in England have increased nearly three times and nearly all the courses are crowded to the point of discomfort.

Fair Simone, by Fariman—Somone, by St. Simon, is the best two-year-old filly of the English season. She is moderate of size, but a beauty, fine weight carrier and quick beginner and has won six of her eight races and some $8,400.

"BILL TATEM," THE ENGLISH TURFMAN

Grand Parade's owner, Lord Glanely, who is 51 years of age, became a peer fifteen months ago—he was then Sir William Tatem. He began work as a shipping clerk, and became a millionaire. The turf still knows him best as Bill Tatem. His first commercial venture was to buy an old tramp steamer, and recently, as the sole director of the Tatem Steam Navigation Co., Limited, he effected a $15,000,000 shipping deal. He has given vast sums of money to charity and for educational purposes.

SAILOR'S SOUTHERN PACIFIC FISHING

Member of the Crew of the Warship Orbita Writes of His Experiences.

Alfred H. W. Brazier, a literary sailor and sportsman, who was a member of the crew of the British warship Orbita, stationed during the great war on the western coast of South America, writes of his fishing experience in Pacific waters to the Angler's News of London in a most entertaining way, and as follows: "During our voyage fresh fish was a treat to us; you may be sure that all spare time always found me patiently waiting for a bite.

"The first fime the tackle was used was almost immediately it came to hand. We were in a large bay in Peru, and the sport was fast and furious. The principal fish was a specie of hake, which run in weight from half a pound to four pounds. On one occasion I was doing duty on a collier and caught ninety-six fish in the morning, and we set to work to salt the fish. My duty was to catch and empty, the mate to wash and clean and the captain to salt and pack in a barrel, and as the collier's cook hailed from Barbados he could just cook those fish lovely. Of course, the waters of Chile and Peru abound with all kinds of fish, but it was our one aim to capture this specie of hake and smelts. The smelts were really worth catching and often ran to nine inches in length.

"Our chief spots were Valparaiso, Coquimbo, Mejillones and Iquique (Chile), and in Peru at Payta, Sechura Bay, Callao and San Juan.

"Good sport was often had with the sharks, and one caught at Puerto San Juan del Sur, Nicaragua, weighed quite one and one-half tons—a proper man-eater, with eight rows of teeth. One of the sharks captured was found to contain six young ones—the smallest weighed nine pounds—and when they were placed in the swimming tank they were quite lively.

"The most curious fish we captured was a kind of rainbow fish, which were numerous in the waters of Nicaguara. They are about four inches long and much like a bream in shape. Along the back the color is a bright scarlet, eyes a pretty purple and various colors on the body. The first fish I caught I took along to show my messmates, and then discovered that my hand had a scarlet mark on it where the fish had laid. Maybe, some of your readers know the fish, and I should be pleased, if possible, to have its name.

"I was unable to get out after the tuna in California—at San Diego and San Francisco—although when at sea we often saw them, but I hope to able to record my first tuna in the near future.

"Small halibut often fell to our lot at Prince Rupert, British Columbia. We frequently tried for salmon there, but could not tempt them. The fishing industry at Prince Rupert is carried on with profit to the fishermen. They bring their catch in, consisting of anything from 5,000 pounds to 20,000 pounds, and take it direct to the refrigerator store, where it is purchased at various prices, according to market.

"The waters around Victoria, British Columbia, abound with salmon, halibut, skate and black bass, but we did not devote much time there for angling, as the scenery was so beautiful and the air so delightful that the shore call could not be refused.

"I anticipated being home over a year ago, and handed my tackle to another chum on the Otranto, who was expecting to remain on the coast, but the unexpected happened. They went home and I was left, but I could not have had many opportunities of fishing afterward, as after a period of patrol work I had a journey from Canada to Japan and China, and thus home from the Far East."

GROUSE AND GROUSE HUNTING

It Is a Wary Bird, Haunting the Rough Ground and Shady Places.

The sportsman who pursues the ruffed grouse in his native fastness needs endurance, patience, a knowledge of woodcraft, and skill with his weapon. He will travel uninhabited territory, and must know how to find his way out of it with or without a compass. He will force his way through hazel brush as high as his head, and higher; he will climb over logs four feet through at the butt, and many of them; he will skirt the ends or edges of tamarack swamps; he will find himself in hollows so deep and dark that even at midday the sunlight filters through dimly; he will breast steep hills carpeted in leaves as smooth under foot almost as ice; he will work along the sides of ridges, where one foot will be half a yard below the other; he must be prepared to shoot in front, to left or right, or behind him, and he will find that fifteen out of twenty shots are snapshots purely, with no time left him in which to calculate bird speed, or distance, or how much to hold ahead, or anything else. If he bags two out of six shots, in and out, through the day, he will have cause at nightfall to take his right hand in his left and shake with himself as a grouse man worth talking to.

Where shall the ruffed grouse be sought? In the roughest country in your state. The brushy sides of a ravine, through which flows a trout stream, frequently are the best of grounds. In heavy ridges upon which thrives the beech—those are good places. Dense thickets, stretching far alongside heavy woodlands and forming a wall-like array of slim saplings, with berry bushes and briers tangling for acres in front, these combine to form ideal ground. Is there a long-lumber road, traversing a wood and having your brush springing up either side, the old tops piled here and there? Walk the entire length of it, and have your gun ready for instant action. Is the ground a wood, then thicket dwindling down to a field of fall-green clover? If so, there is more than a slim chance.

THE QUAIL AND ITS LANGUAGE

The valley quail's peculiar colors of slate blue, gray, white and cinnamon and the long, jaunty plume of jet hanging forward over his bill are now too generally known to need special description here. In size he is a little smaller than Bob White and quite inferior to Bob in favor, though still a good bird, except when in the hands of a cook whose sole knowledge of quail is the cabalistic phrase, "Quail on toast." In such hands the combination is almost as good as chip on pasteboard.

Few birds have so many different notes as the valley quail, and in few do pitch, tone and accent vary so much, even with the same individual. The common call is a flute-like, penetrating "o-hi-o," rapidly repeated four or five times, but varied often, so that it sounds like "ko-loi-o." Again, the accent is shifted until it sounds like "tuck-a-hoe," and sometimes the accent is so heavy on the second syllable that it becomes "k-woick," and often the last "uh" is dropped entirely and only a low "k-woick" is heard. During hatching time the male, perched upon a bush near the nest, sends forth at intervals of a minute or two a low "wah" full of deep content, and ofter during this time, when on the ground or moving about, he gives a metallic-toned "wheeooo" or "teeooo," often sounded several times in quick succession, and sometimes in a husky tone. The alarm call is a sharp "whit, whit, whit," changing often into a low, muffled "wook, wook, wook," while the birds are on the ground, but when they rise a sharp, clear "chirp, chirp, chirp" is the only sound heard, and generally from the birds started singly.

VIRGINIA FARMERS SUFFER FROM ELK

RICHMOND, Va., October 29.—Farmers in the Shenandoah Valley, and especially in Page County, Virginia, have petitioned the state department of game and inland fisheries through their game wardens for redress from the depredations of the elk.

It will be recalled that about five years ago the State of Virginia bought 150 head of elk at a cost of between $7,000 and $8,000 and turned the animals loose in various parts of the state, protecting them by act of the general assembly for five years from hunters.

Farmers in the section where the elk roam find that they are helpless against their depredations, growing crops being destroyed and much damage being done. The state commissioner of game is equally powerless in the matter, unless the general assembly comes to his assistance by allowing the farmers to kill the elk which are destroying their crops.

MEDICAL NIMROD'S FINE HUNTING TRIP

Dr. Frank P. Thompson of Chicago has just returned from a ten weeks' hunting trip, which proved successful, the doctor having the proud honor of killing a mountain sheep, three bears and a bull moose, besides other game. The doctor and his wife left Chicago August 8 for Edmonton, Alberta, and from there took a gasoline launch to Fort Vermilion, three hundred miles farther north. They then went by trail into the McLeod River country, four hundred miles north of Banff, where the mountain sheep was killed. It was while making the river trip that the doctor shot the bears. Although the trip took ten weeks, part of it was devoted to sight-seeing on the Pacific Coast, and the doctor states a nimrod can go to Canada, bag a mountain sheep and return to Chicago inside of three weeks.—American Field.

PARIS, France, October 29.—Governmental and municipal authorities and coal merchants virtually admit the impossibility of finding a remedy for the situation which has arisen here because of the coal shortage. Although cold weather has not yet really begun, Paris is already feeling the pinch, and there is some suffering in the poorer quarters of the city.

LONDON, England, October 29.—The German peace treaty may come into effect on the anniversary of armistice day.
